Navigating the communities: communities.sas.com

Ask your technical questions of other admins, architects, and SAS employees.

The screenshot shows the SAS Support Communities website. The top navigation bar includes 'sas' and 'COMMUNITIES'. Below it, a secondary navigation bar has 'Community', 'Learn', 'Programming', 'Analytics', 'Administration', 'Solutions', and 'Regional'. The 'Administration' menu is open, showing options: 'Administration and Deployment', 'Architecture', 'SAS Hot Fix Announcements', 'SAS Product Release Announcements', and 'SUGA'. The main content area features a search bar with the text 'Find your SAS answers', a dropdown for 'All community', and an 'Ask A Question' button. Below the search bar are three content cards: 'Recent Solutions' (green), 'Now playing: Tutorials from SAS Global Forum' (orange), and 'Using SAS with Microsoft Azure' (blue). The URL at the bottom is 'https://communities.sas.com/15/Administration/ct-p/admin'.

The screenshot displays the SAS Communities interface for the SUGA group. At the top, the SAS logo and 'COMMUNITIES' are visible. A navigation bar includes links for Community, Learn, Programming, Analytics, Administration, Solutions, and Regional. The SUGA header identifies it as the 'SAS Users Group for Administrators & Architects'. A search bar contains the text 'Find your SAS answers'. Below the search bar, a breadcrumb trail shows 'Home / SUGA'. A prominent orange 'Join Group Hub' button is highlighted with a red arrow. Underneath, there is an 'Options' menu. The main content area features a post titled 'Resources for SAS Admins and Architects: What you need to know to get the job done hassle-free' by Shelley Sessoms, dated 2020-07-20. A 'Resources' tag is present below the post. On the right side, a 'Welcome' banner for SUGA is shown, along with a text box explaining the group's purpose and how to join.
